

The wounded heart

For decades the heart
keeps life afloat
Of hardness unheard
Illness deterred
Run fast run slow
Fight against blow
Just keep the pace
And follow the race
Through futile life
And its eternal strive
Broken when orphaned
Broken by rage
Damaged by jealousy
Infested by hate
Enchanted by love
Healed by trust
Risen by tenderness

Heart finds peace
Keeps life afloat
For decades to come.
