

Love & tears

Love, you overwhelming feeling and power the power that opens doors, that makes you fly, the power that cheers your heart, that makes you live, the power that covers your sorrows and fills your soul

Love may be strong, it's power too much Love can kill, love can destroy, Love needs to be fed, love needs to meet the one who is part of the common destiny

Love needs its complement, its partner, Love blossoms together, cannot live alone,
Love gets bigger and bigger day by day
A lover alone cannot find his way.

Love can make ill, love can open wounds,
Love can lead to pain, to tears,
Love can stop all logic, overrules the logic,
Love can be too much to bear.
